

Worldwide Further Public Offering

Investigate if a target company has announced a Further Public Offering such as a secondary offering or share placement and use that information to track the impact of dilution on shareholdings.

Clients can access FPO data announcements captured at 4 stages:

New

indicates that the FPO has been announced but is not yet effective.

Postponed

indicates that the FPO has been temporarily suspended.

Closed

indicates that the FPO has now finalized.

Withdrawn

indicates that the FPO has been permanently stopped due to the company's or regulatory body's decision.

Share Outstanding

Once a FPO event become effective, a Shares Outstanding is published to reflect the previous and new amount of securities outstanding as a consequence of the additional securities distributed in the offering.
